

HEI Gives Back Sponsors Local Charitable Events

On November 2nd AIA Akron hosted its annual Dueling for Schooling Fundraiser at The Tangier to benefit the Chapter's scholarship program. Past fundraisers have been successful at raising monies for Kent State University's College of Architecture students and professional education programs for members. HEI was one of the bar sponsors, and Dan Evans and his wife Denise had the privilege of attending the fun event.

November 10th was the annual Refuge of Hope Gala at Brookside Country Club. HEI donated an aerial photograph session to one lucky bidder. Located in Canton, Ohio, Refuge of Hope provides hot meals for the hungry seven days a week and emergency shelter and transition to independence for homeless men.
